

This is a map of the state air transportation system. Four "Special Emphasis Regions" identified by the state legislature are shown in dark green. Also depicted are public use airports across the state (General Aviation), and Commercial airports with scheduled passenger service.